NC STATE

College of Education

Excellent Leaders • Effective Schools • Enriched Communities©

Come learn more about TWO new leadership programs co-designed by NC State and Johnston County Public Schools

JCPS EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PRACTICUM (ELP) & NC STATE'S JOHNSTON PRINCIPAL LEADERSHIP ACADEMY (JPLA)

Information Session

November 9, 2017
4:30 - 6:00 pm

or

November 13, 2017
4:30 - 6:00 pm

AG Glenn Building

Cohort-based

Principal License

Award-Winning Content

Yearlong Paid Internship

School Visits

Specialized Trainings

JCPS and NC State University are collaborating to provide two innovative programs for aspiring school leaders: (1) The Educational Leadership Practicum (ELP) and (2) The Johnston Principal Leadership Academy (JPLA).

JCPS Academic Innovation's Educational Leadership Practicum (ELP) is intended to support teachers interested in fostering their flame to become a lead learner, instructional leader, and then a school administrator. ELP is an extensive leadership pathway of paid professional development, coaching, and support to aspiring leaders in JCPS.

The Johnston Principal Leadership Academy (JPLA) is based on NC State's award winning MSA program, which is ranked as one of the top principal preparation programs in the nation.

If you want to make an even bigger impact, come to NC State where we "Think and Do the Extraordinary!"TM

"Co-Designed by JCPS Leaders to Prepare JCPS Leaders!"

The deadline to apply to NC State University is January 15, 2018

No GRE/MAT required.You must also attend a mandatory Candidate Assessment Day on Saturday, January 20, 2018 at the Friday Institute on NC State's Centennial Campus.

Please contact Dr. Fran Riddick, fapiscit@ncsu.edu or 919-515-6901, if you have any questions throughout the application process.

JCPS